

Don't miss out on Nottingham Grand Prix!

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: April 16, 2018

There are just a couple of days left to enter the Nottingham Grand Prix, the sixth main stop on this season's circuit.

The competition takes place at the David Ross Sports Village at the University of Nottingham on the weekend of May 5 and 6, with the Banded events on the Saturday and the Singles, Veterans' and Under-21s on the Sunday.

Defending series champion and current leader Chris Doran heads the men's field, while Evie Collier, who has spent the past two weeks at the Commonwealth Games as a coaching intern, is in the women's field.

Entries close at 00:01am on Wednesday. Entries are also open for the Blackpool Grand Prix on May 19 and 20 and the Burgess Hill Satellite Grand Prix a week later.

Click here to enter any of the events

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/dont-miss-out-on-nottingham-grand-prix/>