Ruby Chan reached the singles quarter-finals and partnered Jasmin Wong to the same stage of the doubles, while Louis Price got to the last 16 at the Belgium Junior & Cadet Open.

Chan and Wong both made it through their groups in the Cadet Girls Singles, but Wong was drawn against fourth seed Lou Frete of France and was knocked out in the last 32.

However, Chan came from 2-1 down to defeat Charlotte Massinond of France and followed up with a 3-0 victory over Russia's Anastasiia Ivanova. Her run was ended in the quarter-finals by seventh seed Yukari Sugawara of Japan.

In the doubles, Chan & Wong defeated sixth seeds Chloe Chomis & Lucie Farcy in the last 16 but went out at the next stage to the Hungarian third seeds.

In the boys' competitions, Price won his three group matches, including a defeat of the eighth seed Iker Gonzalez of Spain. He then defeated Jelle Moris of Netherlands before his run was ended by 14th seed Gao Shentong of China in the last 16.

Amirul Hussain and Jamie Liu also qualified from their groups. Hussain ran into second seed Nicolas Degros of the host nation in the last 32, while Liu went out at the same stage to a Chinese opponent.

Josh Weatherby, who had Degros in his group, went out in the group stage, as did Anaya Patel and Darcie Proud in the girls' competition.
