Denise Payet dug deep to reach the last 16 at the Spanish Junior & Cadet Open, before being beaten by the second seed.

The 16-year-old, fresh from the World Team Championships, won her group in the Junior Girls' Singles and was drawn to face Merve Nur Ozturk of Turkey in the last 32. In a remarkable match, Payet led 3-1 but saw her opponent fight back to level. The decider was a lengthy affair, which Payet eventually won to complete a 4-3 (9-11, 11-9, 12-10, 11-6, 7-11, 5-11, 17-15) victory.

However, No 2 seed Zdena Blaskova of Czech Republic was too strong in the last 16 and won 4-0. Megan Gidney and Jasmin Wong both won one group match but were unable to advance to the knockout stage.

In the Junior Boys' singles, James Smith went through as a group runner-up after two victories and was also defeated by a Czech opponent, Frantisek Onderka, in the last 64. Joe Cope won one group match, while Shayan Siraj was frustrated as he saw leads evaporate in two of his matches as he too went out at the first stage.

In the doubles, all three pairs involving English players went out in their opening matches, including Payet, who was seeded second alongside Amy Wang of the USA but went out to a Turkish partnership.

The team competitions take place tomorrow, with the Cadet events to follow over the weekend.
