

Urban prepare for all-or-nothing title weekend spectacular

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: May 25, 2018

Urban TTC kickstarts the biggest weekend in the club's history as they look to secure the British League crown.

The club take on Drumchapel and Ormeau this Saturday and Sunday respectively, with only two victories enough to secure them the title.

Ormesby's victory over the Scots last week has left Urban TTC needing two wins, with the defending champions up first.

Drumchapel have played some of the club's emerging talent with their title ambitions over.

However, Urban TTC are taking no chances and will field a strong lineup to maximise their chances of victory, while will leave them needing a win over Ormeau next week to secure the crown.

Urban TTC have their first-choice side available for the entire weekend, meaning Satoshi Aida, Daniel Kosiba, Daniel Schaffer, Szilard Gyorgy and Alim Hirji are all primed and ready for action.

Should they defeat Drumchapel, it will ensure an all-or-nothing title decider against Ormeau on Sunday, who have already secured third place in their maiden season in the top flight.

Tickets for the match are priced at £5, while VIP tickets which provide free food and drink plus a chance to meet the players are priced at £50. All tickets can be bought at:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/urban-ttc-ormeau-ttc-tickets-45717733973?ref=eios&aff=eios>

Alternatively, you can watch the club's title chase live on Facebook, with the club live streaming both games at <https://www.facebook.com/urbanttc/>

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/urban-prepare-for-all-or-nothing-title-weekend-spectacular/>