England took silver and bronze as the team competitions came to an end at the Cadet 6 Nations in Germany.

The girls' squad of Ruby Chan, Jasmin Wong, Anaya Patel and Darcie Proud claimed the silver, finishing behind hosts Germany.

Along the way, Chan beat the 20th and 37th-ranked players in Europe in the final match against Norway A, though defeat meant England were unable to challenge for the gold.

The boys' squad of Amirul Hussain, Jamie Liu, Josh Weatherby and Louis Price won the bronze, behind unbeaten gold medallists Netherlands and the hosts. Hussain won nine of his 10 singles matches.

The individual competitions follow, ending tomorrow.
