England is having some great results at the Polish Open.

The men's squad of Paul Drinkhall, Andrew Baggaley, Darius knight, Chris Doran and Danny Reed, along with the women's squad of Joanna Parker and Kelly Sibley headed out to the Polish Open for what has already been a very impressive tournament for them.

Drinkhall, Reed and Baggaley all made it through to rd of 64 in the men's singles, with Drinkhall winning his match and progressing in the rd of 32 (Reed and Baggaley's matches are yet to be played). In the women's Parker and Sibley successfully negotiated the group stages to make it through to the first round, with Sibley doing so with successive 4-0 victories..

Below is the large list of results tracking England's progress through the tournament so far, for the full results see ittf.com:
