There's still time to take your place alongside Commonwealth Games medallist David McBeath at the Crawley Grand Prix.

The first Grand Prix of the season is at the popular K2 venue on September 22 and 23, and entries close on Sunday night.

McBeath, a regular in the England team and part of the squad which won bronze at the Gold Coast this year, is one of the leading players to enter so far.

The incentive to enter has never been higher, with the revamped Grand Prix series now featuring higher prize money, with players able to win cash in every playing category.
