

Jarvis knocked out in Belarus

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: November 15, 2018

Tom Jarvis bowed out of the Belarus Open tonight against a player ranked more than 100 places above him.

The teenager was beaten 4-1 by Tomas Konecny of the Czech Republic, who at No 121 in the world is ranked 112 places above Jarvis.

The Englishman won a close first game but his opponent levelled by the same 12-10 scoreline and then pulled away in the next three games to win their last-64 clash.

Jarvis is next in action for England against Serbia at Medway Park on Tuesday.

Result

Men's Singles

Round of 64

Tomas Konecny (CZE) bt Tom Jarvis 4-2 (10-12, 12-10, 11-5, 11-6, 11-8)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/jarvis-knocked-out-in-belarus/>