National Championships sponsor PG Mutual and Table Tennis England today launch an outstanding exclusive offer for our members.

The Table Tennis England Income Protection Plus Scheme can offer £400 a month of income benefit for members who become unable to work due to injury or illness, after a short waiting period, for just £10 a month.

Cover starts as soon as the first contribution is paid. You can make unlimited claims for the duration of your policy – with no penalties, excess payments or premium increases if you do need to make a claim.

Not only that, the scheme includes an Enhanced Loyalty Bonus* that aims to provide you with a minimum capital sum of £10,000 and six months income benefit to your family if you die and an investment element which builds to provide a lump sum when your policy matures.

There is a simple online claims process, while PG Mutual have a record of paying out on 98% of claims between 2015 and 2017.

PG Mutual, based in St Albans, have been Official Income Protection Partner of Table Tennis England since 2016, the year they first sponsored the National Championships.

Table Tennis England Chief Executive Sara Sutcliffe said: "PG Mutual are an outstanding supporter of table tennis and we're delighted to be furthering our relationship with them to offer our members access to this unrivalled scheme."

The Table Tennis England Income Protection Plus Scheme is not the only benefit our members can enjoy through PG Mutual.

Anyone looking to add extra protection can also apply for the regular PG Mutual Income Protection Plus policy, which covers up to 70% of your income. Table Tennis England members receive 20% off their first two years' cover. Click here for more details or to get a quote.

And don't forget, Table Tennis England members can also access a host of discounts on major brands through our Benefits Club, backed by PG Mutual.
