This week the photographs were taken at the 1981 World Championships in Novi Sad, Yugoslavia from the Alan and Jose Ransome Collection. England's Men finished in sixth position and the Ladies Team in 12th. Desmond Douglas won 18 of his 21 matches in the team event, a very impressive record.

The best individual performances came from Desmond Douglas (MS Rd of 16), Desmond Douglas with Paul Day (MD Round of 16) and Jill Hammersley (Parker) with Linda Howard (Jarvis) (WD Round of 16).

The men's squad was Paul Day, Desmond Douglas, John Hilton, Duggie Johnson and Bob Potton and the ladies Alison Gordon, Jill Hammersley (Parker), Linda Jarvis (Howard) and Karen Witt.

An added extra this week is a picture of Scotland's Richard Yule who was of course the former CEO of the ETTA for many years when they were in Hastings.
