Get ready for National #TableTennisDay 2019! We don't want anyone to miss out on our annual celebration of the sport, so now is the time to get the date – Thursday July 18 – into your diaries.

It's a day when clubs, schools, workplaces and other venues bring people together to play the sport and make sure everyone is talking about table tennis.

Hundreds of events take place up and down the country, with thousands of people involved and plenty of media coverage – including becoming a trending topic on Twitter.

We will be releasing more details about our plans and how YOU can get involved in the next few weeks, so keep an eye on our website and the Over the Net newsletter. To give you a flavour of the event, click here to read about last year's #TableTennisDay.

If you can't wait until July, did you know that April 6 is World Table Tennis Day? If you want to join in and be part of the global party, head to the ITTF website and register an event!
