Posted On: April 30, 2019

We are pleased to announce that we have launched the Table Tennis England Female Ambassador programme and the Table Tennis England Female Coaching Bursary.

Both opportunities are part of the organisations aim to increase female membership in the game, and both programmes offer something completely different to our female players.

The Table Tennis England Female Coaching Bursary has been launched to offer support to get more women and girls coaching in the game, as well as ongoing support through a mentoring scheme post award. To complete an application, please click here.

The Table Tennis England Female Ambassador programme has been launched to allow women and girls in the game the opportunity to share their stories about their involvement with the game, and to pass on their passion for the game. To find out more and complete an application, please click here.

Please share the opportunities around your clubs, leagues, and contacts far and wide.
