Mal and Danny McEvoy were the stars of the show at the Halton Table Tennis League Championships, reaching a total of six finals between them.

The Championships and then the finals were played at Halton Stadium in Widnes, the home of Halton Table Tennis.

Mayor of Halton, Councillor John Bradshaw, and Mayoress Councillor Marjorie Bradshaw attended the finals. The Mayor, as President of the Halton League, kindly presented the trophies at the end of the evening.

The Kevin Higgins Memorial Trophy was presented by Mark Higgins on behalf of the family.

Niamh Scarborough was awarded The Stan Woodward Most Promising Junior Award.
