

Hosts end England hopes of gold

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: July 22, 2019

Hosts India ended English hopes in three semi-finals at the Commonwealth Championships today.

Tom Jarvis, up against top seed and world No 24 Sathiyam Gnanasekaran, gave a good account of himself, despite the 4-0 scoreline, particularly pushing his opponent in the opening game.

Click here to watch Jarvis v Gnanasekaran

Gnanasekaran lost 4-3 (9-11, 6-11, 11-5, 11-8, 17-15, 7-11, 11-9) to compatriot Harmeet Desai in the gold medal match. Jarvis has the consolation of a bronze.

There will be bronze too for Tin-Tin Ho, who was beaten in five by Ayhika Mukherjee, who went on to beat Madhurika Patkar 4-0 (11-6, 11-4, 11-9, 19-17) in another all-Indian final.

Click here to watch Ho v Mukherjee

And in the Men's Doubles, the Indian juggernaut was also unstoppable as Amalraj Anthony & Manav Thakkar defeated Jarvis & Sam Walker 3-1 to set up a final against top seeds Gnanasekaran & Sharath Achanta. And it was Anthony & Thakkar who prevailed 3-1 (8-11, 11-6, 13-11, 12-10).

England end the championships in Cuttack with two team silvers, two individual bronzes and one men's doubles bronze.

Results

Men's Singles

Semi-finals

Sathiyar Gnanasekaran (IND) bt Tom Jarvis 4-0 (16-14, 11-6, 11-7, 11-9)

Women's Singles

Semi-finals

Ayhika Mukherjee (IND) bt Tin-Tin Ho 4-1 (11-6, 11-6, 7-11, 11-4, 11-4)

Men's Doubles

Semi-finals

Amalraj Anthony & Manav Thakkar (IND) bt Walker & Jarvis 3-1 (11-9, 8-11, 11-6, 11-5)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/hosts-end-england-hopes-of-gold/>