Book your place now for the Midlands Club and Volunteer Conference on Sunday 6th October 2019 taking place at Villa Park, home of Premier League newcomers Aston Villa FC.

The Club and Volunteer Conference will be a great way for clubs and leagues to receive all the latest news and information from Table Tennis England, attend workshops aimed at grassroots development, and also network and share best practice with Table Tennis England staff, local clubs, and leagues.

This year's conference will have a particular focus on how to grow the number of young people and females in the game.

An agenda will be sent to delegates two weeks before the event, and prior to the event attendees are able to indicate what they would like to learn through the booking form.

The event is free to attend but advance booking is required, and limited to two spaces per club/league.
