The draw for the Hatfield Grand Prix has been released – and we have also announced an exciting new venue for the final Grand Prix of the season in June.

Serial Grand Prix winner Chris Doran heads the seedings for the men's singles, ahead of Luke Savill and Ismaila Akindiya. Preston Grand prix men's singles winner Grigory Vlasov is also in the field, seeded No 5.

Women's singles winner in Preston, Haoyu "Jenny" Liu is the top seed for Hatfield. As ever, the banded competitions take place on Saturday, with the men's and women's singles, veterans' singles, open doubles and the men's and women's under-21s taking place on Sunday.

Meanwhile, there will be a new stop on the Grand Prix circuit when Gloucester hosts the last event of the season next June.

The Aspire Sports & Cultural Trust in the historic city is the venue for the event on June 27-28. The venue is a new building and can hold up to 30 tables.
