

Lebesson ends Jarvis' run in quarters

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: November 03, 2019

Tom Jarvis reached his second successive ITTF Challenge series quarter-final and it took the top seed and former European champion Emmanuel Lebesson to end his run at the Belarus Open.

Jarvis overcame Marek Badowski of Poland in the last 16, gaining revenge on the world No 120, who defeated him in the quarter-finals of the Polish Open last month.

Click here to watch Jarvis v Badowski (registration required).

That put him into the last eight against 2016 European champion Lebesson of France, currently ranked No 31 in the world. The left-hander won a tight first game but then stamped his class on the match to seal a 4-0 victory.

Click here to watch Jarvis v Lebesson (registration required).

Nevertheless, Jarvis (WR 169) can be satisfied with his tournament, picking up three wins over higher-ranked players, including world No 67 Kirill Gerassimenko, to put him in good form going into the ZEN-NOH ITTF Team World Cup in Tokyo this week.

Results

Men's Singles

Round of 16

Jarvis bt Marek Badowski (POL) 4-1 (11-8, 14-12, 11-7, 8-11, 11-9)

Quarter-finals

Emmanuel Lebesson (FRA) bt Jarvis 4-0 (12-10, 11-3, 11-3, 11-5)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/lebesson-ends-jarvis-run-in-quarters/>