Mollie Patterson & Millie Rogove are sure of a doubles medal, while Josh Weatherby is carrying the flag for the boys after a busy day for English youngsters at the Portugal Junior & Cadet Open.

Patterson & Rogove are seeded seventh in the Junior Girls' Doubles and had two 3-2 victories, first over a host nation pair and then over third seeds Emine Ernst & Dobrila Jorgueska of Netherlands in the quarter-finals, winning the decider 13-11. They now face second seeds Helga Dari (HUN) and Faith Tung (USA) in the semi-finals on Thursday.

Erin Green & Amy Marriott reached the last 16, where they were beaten by the fourth seeds, while Anna Green, playing with Brazil's Beatriz Fiore, went out in the last 32.

In the singles, fifth seed Patterson won her group with three wins out of three to reach today's last 32, where she was joined by group runners-up Rogove and Erin Green. Anna Green and Amy Marriott went out in the group stage.

In the Junior Boys, six English players made it through the group stage to reach the round of 64 – most notably Peter Smallcombe, who won all three of his matches despite being the lowest-ranked player in the group, and Weatherby, who topped his group on countback with two wins as the lowest-ranked player.

Ben Piggott and Joe Cope also won their groups from second-seeding, while Felix Thomis and Connor Green – the latter the lowest-ranked player in his group – went through as runners-up.

Josh Weatherby

However, only Weatherby survived the last 64, coming from 2-0 down to defeat Jadriel Villanueva Velez of Puerto Rico 4-2 (10-12, 7-11, 11-9, 12-10, 11-1, 11-9). Green was beaten by seventh seed Carlos Fernandez of Peru and Piggott, Cope, Thomis and Green all lost to higher-ranked players.

Ethan Walsh surprisingly went out in the first stage, finishing third as the top-ranked player in his group, while Sajad Ali and David Gofton also had to settle for a place in the consolation singles.

In the doubles, the partnerships of Cope & Walsh and Piggott & Thomis went the furthest, reaching the last 16. The former lost to the fourth seeds from Italy, and the latter to the second seeds from Chile.
