Fusion welcome North Ayrshire to London this Saturday for their first game of this season's SBL Premier Division.

North Ayrshire will be looking to bounce back from defeat in their opening round against a strong BATTs team. The Scottish side will have their work cut out having never beaten Fusion away from home.

A team of Colin Dalgleish, Zak Wilson & Chris Main will make the long journey south alongside coach Jordan McGinlay.

Dalgleish comes into the fixture in fine form having been crowned Home Nations International Men's Champion just last weekend.

Teammate Main said: "Every team is difficult this season, and it's important this Saturday for all of us to go out there and play well, give ourselves chances and hopefully get the win."

Fusion will play another rearranged fixture on 7th December against title holders Ormesby. Saturday 14th December then sees a full weekend of action with six teams in action.
