Six members of the British Para Table Tennis Pathway squad will compete in the final international event of the 2019 season in San José, Costa Rica, from December 12-14.

They include Lucie Bouron (women's class 3), who has already won gold medals in Mexico and Finland this season, Spanish Open medallist Jack Stockdale (men's class 10) and Dan Bullen (men's class 5), silver medallist in Mexico who reached the quarter-finals of the men's class 5 team event on his major championship debut at the European Championships in September.

The full British squad for the Para Copa Costa Rica is:

Alex Bland – men's class 7 (20, Rotherham)
Lucie Bouron – women's class 3, (24, Bracknell)
Daniel Bullen – men's class 5 (22, St Neots)
Ryan Henry – men's class 8 (19, Ardrossan)
Jack Stockdale – men's class 10 (19, Romford)
Shae Thakker – men's class 10 (16, Denham)
