The Senior British League, Premier Division returns for the first fixture of 2020 as Ormeau head to North Ayrshire looking to continue their unbeaten run.

Ormeau last played in October as they completed a resounding victory against London based BATTs. This came just a day after their thrilling 4-3 win against Archway Peterborough at the start of the season.

Matt Ware, Gavin McGuire and Dominic Nicolle look set to make the trip from Belfast to Scotland knowing victory could move Ormeau ahead of Urban at the top of the table.

North Ayrshire are yet to win a game and will be desperate for a result to take them off the bottom of the Premier Division. A win would move them above Archway Peterborough, although the Scotland outfit will have played three more games than Archway.

They will field their strongest trio available of Colin Dalgleish, Zak Wilson and Chris Main. All three have put in strong individual performances so far this season and will be hoping to combine to get their first team victory.

The match gets underway at 2pm and will be streamed live on the North Ayrshire Facebook page.

The two remaining Round 4 fixtures of Ormesby v Archway Peterborough and BATTs v Urban will take place on the 18th and 19th January respectively.
