Well over 100 players have already entered the Wolverhampton Grand Prix but there is still space if you would like to join them!

The entry deadline for the event has been extended until Thursday night, with spaces in all Bands and Open competitions.

Among those already confirmed is London 2012 Paralympic hero David Wetherill, who is back on the Grand Prix circuit for the first time this season, having been part of the GB team which retained the European title in September – just weeks after undergoing heart surgery.

Wolverhampton is the third main Grand Prix of the season, with further events to follow in London and Gloucester.
