

Horsham Spinners round-up

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: March 30, 2020

There were four STAG Horsham Spinners tournaments in February and March 2020 and this is a round-up of all of the results, draw sheets and photos of the medallists.

All May tournaments are cancelled at present, due to the coronavirus pandemic, so the next one which may take place is 20th June – please monitor the Table Tennis England website for the latest updates.

2nd February: Junior

There were 31 entrants in this tournament. The top three in the U16s were 1) Ollie Maric-Murray (Sy), 2) Mahmood Kelani (K), 3) Joe Hunter (Mi). Maric-Murray defeated Kelani 11-9 in the fifth.

The medallists in the U17s were 1) Hunter, 2) Nahom Goitom (Sy), 3) Howard Onweng (Sy).

In the U18s, the best three were 1) David McKenzie (Sy), 2) Goitom, 3) Josh Amanor (Sy).

In the U19s the three medallists were 1) McKenzie, 2) Amanor, 3) Thevian Loganathan (Sy).

8th March: Senior/Veteran

Only 13 players took part in this tournament, which necessitated a move to a smaller venue (Slinfold School). The seniors only had four players. Dan Pound (Sx) had a very good win over his team-mate, Mark Collins (Sx) in the decisive match.

In the Veterans, second seed Marlow had an unexpected loss in the group to Simon Kempton (Sy), which meant he faced top seed, Scott in the semis. Marlow only just overcame Ludovic Montiel (Bk) 11-9 in the fifth before defeating Scott 3-2. However, in the final he reversed his loss to Kempton in straight games. Kempton had scraped a win in the semis 11-9 in the fifth over Cameron Brealey (Ha).

In the Open, Scott and Bronziet both won their semi-finals 3-2 vs Tom Kinga (Sx) & Brealey (Ha) respectively. Scott defeated Bronziet in four close games in the final.
