

Youth development webinar for coaches

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: April 01, 2020

Table Tennis England Junior Head Coach Marcus Gustafson will deliver the next in a series of free webinars to help coaches develop their knowledge base during the coronavirus lockdown.

Marcus will lead the session on youth development and our youth programme and performance pathway. The webinar is open to all Level 1 (UKCC, Lead Coaches & ETTA Level 2) coaches.

The webinar is at 2pm on Tuesday April 7 and will be based around a Q&A session, so please have your questions ready!

The webinar is free but limited to 60 per session. Click here to sign up via TT Membership and courses.

Once you have signed up to the CPD we will send you a link to the conference call nearer the time. You simply click on the link and away we go.

To check you have successfully signed up, please click on 'Entries' in your Profile on TT Membership. Here you should find if you have successfully signed up.

Marcus' current role is as Junior Head Coach, leading the England Junior & Cadet program (EJS). He has previously been Pathway Talent Manager and national girls and women's coach.

His previous coaching roles have been: Head coach for Sparvagen Stockholm, national coach for Sweden, national head coach for Trinidad & Tobago, Barbados, Australia and South Africa, and national women's coach & head coach at the national centre in Norway.

Our first webinar, featuring Table Tennis Wales Director of Coaching Ryan Jenkins, was a big success as 60 coaches at Level 2 or above enjoyed a session on Player Preparation for Competition and Cornering.

Brilliant webinar yesterday with @ryanjenkins_tt on preparation & Cornering. Fantastic that @TableTennisENG are offering this resource to coaches so we can continue to learn during this time, thanks ☑☑ #WorkFromHome
