Chris Turner leads our next free coaching webinar, on the topic of Developing Skill Through a Constraints Led Approach.

The former Talent Development Coach for Table Tennis England, now working as lead for the Diploma in Sporting Excellence Programme (DiSE) and part of UK Coaching's Performance Foundation's latest cohort, Chris has a strong interest in applying coaching theories practically.

In this webinar, Chris will look at the questions: What is skill in table tennis? More importantly, how do we develop it?

He will present an introduction to the Constraints Led Approach method of coaching as another tool to support player development highlighting some practical examples and discuss some of the impact it has had with the players Chris coaches.

The webinar is taking place this coming Tuesday (April 28) at 2pm and is free to coaches of Level 1 and above. The webinar is limited to 60 per session.

We will be emailing all candidates who have successfully signed up an email at 12pm with the login details.
