

Paul's insights – plus, your chance to quiz Liam!

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: May 21, 2020

Paul Drinkhall shone a light on the life of an elite athlete, how he is coping with lockdown and his thoughts on the future of table tennis in a live Q&A session with dozens of Table Tennis England members.

The session took place earlier this week and you can now watch the video below for some illuminating insights, not to mention the occasional curve ball, such as whether pineapple belongs on a pizza!

Members can now sign up for an exclusive Q&A session with England No 1 Liam Pitchford at 2pm next Tuesday (May 26) – simply fill in the form below for your chance to take part. The session is limited to 50 members on a first-come, first-served basis.

[ninja_form id=224]

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/pauls-insights-plus-your-chance-to-quiz-liam/>