

'Question time' with Liam Pitchford

Author: Paul Stimpson Posted On: May 28, 2020

England No 1 Liam Pitchford took the spotlight as he fielded questions on all things table tennis during a live Q&A session with some of our members.

Liam talked about all aspects of his rise to the top 15 in the world, including his best performances, hardest opponent and favourite players, as well as his lockdown training regime over the past few weeks.

You can watch the video below – and also find out which stars from other sports Liam admires the most.
