The TT Kidz Virtual Summer Camp is coming and promises an action-packed week of fun for young table tennis players!

The camp sessions will be on Zoom and will be packed with fun activities to teach children aged 6 to 11 the basic skills of table tennis, as well as keeping them active at home during the school holidays. Each day, the sessions will focus on a specific aspect of the game, getting players ready to get back to their local clubs.

The summer camp will take place every morning of the week beginning Monday 3rd August, from 9.30 to 10am and builds on the TT Kidz Afterschool Club, which ran during lockdown and proved very popular, with more than 100 children taking part in the live sessions.

To sign up, all you need to do is fill in the short form below. The session is limited to the first 100 responses, so don't delay!

Colette Gooding, TT Kidz Programme Lead at Table Tennis England, will be heading up the sessions said: "It was great fun running the TT Kidz Afterschool Club session and over the 10 weeks was nice to see players develop their table tennis skills.

"I'm really looking forward to running the TT Kidz Virtual Summer Camp and giving our TT Kidz members the opportunity to stay involved at home."
