This year has seen an unprecedented surge in the sale of home table tennis tables with the nation occupying the long days of lock-down by playing table tennis at home, with many taking up the sport for the first time.

Now you can get your family and friends playing with the Ping TT at Home set!

For just £17.00 you'll receive 2 quality beginners bats, 3 balls and a retractable roll-net – easy to fit to any dining table or similar surface.

Suitable for anybody new to the game or getting back into it – what a fun way to work off the turkey on Christmas Day!

Ideal as a stocking filler, get yours while stocks last.

Just bats and balls sets are available also for only £12.00. All prices include P&P and VAT.

Order by 16th December to give Santa a chance of delivering to you in time for the big day!
