Panel members for the morning session of the 2021 National Conference have been revealed!

The virtual conference, which is taking place on Saturday 5th June, will focus on themes of diversity and inclusion, and planning for the future.

Panel Members:

Maria Ingles – Coach at Greenhouse Charity, who use sport to engage and help young people living in the inner-city and improve their life chances

Jenny Leach – National Participation Manager and lead for Women and Girls at Table Tennis England

Dan Bullen – British Para squad player, who is also a qualified coach, umpire and TT Kidz Activator, as well as regularly volunteering at his club, St Neots TTC

Juliet Bertie – Part of the Membership Advisory Group (MAG), also a player and committee member at Continental Stars TTC, where the club fielded the first ever all-black female team in the Birmingham League

Peter Thompson – Experienced table tennis coach who runs Ping Pong 4 U, who deliver adapted activities for Disabled People, older people and many other different community groups in the Leeds area for physical and mental exercise. Peter is also a former primary school head teacher.

Today is the last day you can book your place for the conference – click here to secure your place.
