The recipients of honours including the Keith Ponting President's Memorial Award for Lifetime Achievement will be revealed at the conference, which will also cover questions and answers arising from the Annual Review.

There will be presentations and updates on the Table Tennis England centenary, the Return to the Table campaign, the competition review and TT Fast Format leagues.

The Q&A function will be available on the evening, however the Chat function will be disabled – we will endeavour to answer all questions on the night but questions are requested prior to the event. All participants will be on mute and will remain on mute unless asked to speak by the Chair.
