

Down to the last eight in the Men's and last four in the Women's

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: March 05, 2011

With results going almost to seeding we have reached the nitty gritty with the draw at 8.30 pm looking as follows;

Top half two matches to play involve Paul Drinkhall S1 to play Matt Ware with both players having to battle through, in particular Matt Ware who had to be razor sharp to get through against a very crisp Sam Walker 4-2, whilst Paul had also to be at his best to outpoint Will Maybanks 4-1.

Andrew Baggaley is looking strong and determined brushing aside Lee Neil 4-0 and to complete the top four in this half is Darius Knight who had a fairly comfortable journey to the semi final over Richard Andrews.

Paul Drinkhall v Matt Ware

Andrew Baggaley v Darius Knight.

In the lower half of the draw Danny Reed brushed aside Lewis Gray 4-0 and joining him in the draw is David Meads who had a titanic clash with Damien Nicholls coming through by the skin of his teeth 4-3. Chris Doran was taken right to the wire in an explosive match against David McBeath 4-3 and to make up the foursome is Liam Pitchford who got the better of Emran Hussein 4-1.

Danny Reed v David Meads

Chris Doran v Liam Pitchford.

The above matches will be played at 20.45pm.

The Women's semi final to be staged tomorrow is as follows;

Kelly Sibley v Emily Bates

Lauren Spink v Jo Parker.

By Geoff Ware.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/down-to-the-last-eight-in-the-mens-and-last-four-in-the-womens/>