England international Denise Payet takes the Women's singles title, while Sam Mabey adds to his Grand Prix wins tally with the Men's singles.

The Trumpauskas family also had an excellent tournament with Lorestas Trumpauskas reaching the Men's singles final and winning the Mixed Veterans title, while his son Larry Trumpauskas won the Men's Band 4 title.

Player of the tournament was Lara Whitton who played excellent throughout, coming runner up in the Women's singles, winning the Women's U21s and the Women's Band 1.

Men's Singles

Sam Mabey (third seed) storms to victory in the Crawley Grand Prix Men's singles, beating the number six seed Lorestas Trumpauskas 3-0 (11-2, 11-6, 11-5).

Mabey won his group, and then went on to achieve 3-0 victories in all of his knockout rounds.

Bogdan Postudor took finalist Lorestas Trumpauskas to a fifth in the quarter-finals, as did Niall Cameron in the semi-final.

Top seed Grigory Vlasov withdrew from the competition, and second seed Darius Knight was knocked out in the quarter-finals by Niall Cameron.

Women's Singles

England international and top seed at the competition, Denise Payet expectedly takes the Women's singles title at the Crawley Grand Prix.

Payet topped her group and then faced Letitia McMullan and Lara Whitton (player of the tournament) before finally winning 3-0 against Tiana Dennison (11-3, 11-7, 11-7).

5th seed Tiana Dennison had a tough ride to the final as number 8 seed Sara Williams took her to a fifth set in the semi-finals.

Player of the tournament Lara Whitton also put in a great performance in the Women's singles, beating Millie Rogove 3-0 in quarter-finals before losing out to Payet in the semis.
