

Dennison and Engelson put Fusion top of WBL

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: October 18, 2021

Fusion hold a slender one-point lead at the top of the Women's British League, Premier Division after they edged out defending champions Joola Plymouth in the final round of matches on weekend one.

Click here to view pictures from the event, by Melvyn Lovegrove, on our Flickr page

Plymouth went into the tie with a one-point lead of their own at the top – Fusion having drawn their opening match of the weekend against Drumchapel Glasgow, and it was all to play for when the meeting was poised at 2-2, Lois Peake having won her two matches for the champions.

Tiana Dennison put Fusion in front as she came from behind to defeat Rachel Trevorrow 3-2 (11-6, 8-1, 9-11, 13-11, 11-5) and Swedish player Maria Engelson completed a 4-2 victory overall by overcoming Evie Collier 3-1 (8-11, 11-8, 11-3, 11-7).

Dennison had picked up a crucial victory in the match against Drumchapel, beating Lucy Elliott 3-1 (6-11, 11-8, 11-8, 13-11) in the sixth and final tie to clinch a 3-3 draw overall.

That helped to ensure Fusion remained unbeaten all weekend, topping the standings with 9 points, one ahead of Plymouth, with Drumchapel – who lost 4-2 to Plymouth – a further point back.

Peake and Engelson both ended the weekend with 100% records from eight matches each – Engelson also won her two matches in Fusion's second team in the weekend's first round of fixtures, before stepping up.

Division One is tight, with the top four separated by only three points and joint, unbeaten leaders in the shape of Joola Plymouth II and Draycott II.

The leading two teams drew their meeting 3-3, with Plymouth having three times come from behind, culminating in a 3-1 (6-11, 11-9, 11-8, 11-6) victory for Emily Haskell over Kirsty Maull.

There was one other draw apiece for the top two – in Draycott II's case thanks to a terrific comeback win by Mauil in the final match against Tulay Dundar of Thorntons, taking it 3-2 (5-11, 8-11, 11-7, 11-4, 11-2).

Draycott's first string are third in the table on 6pts, with Halton II another point back having enjoyed a somewhat better weekend than their club's top team, who picked up just a solitary victory.

In fact, both second teams overcame their more senior colleagues in the first round of matches on Saturday – it was 5-1 to Halton II and 4-2 to Draycott II.

Fusion II lead Division Two with a 100% record, enough to put them three points clear of leading challengers Fulham Brunswick.

The leaders only dropped four individual matches all weekend, two of them against Dun Laoire Ladies – though Fusion were never in danger of dropping points as they led that fixture 4-1.

Fulham started the weekend brightly with three wins on Saturday, but a 5-1 defeat to Fusion and a 3-3 draw with Brighton leaves them trailing the leaders by three points.

There are joint leaders of the eight-team Division Three, with Drumchapel Glasgow II and Wensum both on 9pts courtesy of four victories and a draw.

It was the match between them which ended all-square, and Wensum may be the happier, having led 2-1 but trailed 3-2 before earning a point courtesy of Sakia Key's 3-2 (6-11, 15-13, 9-11, 11-4, 11-9) victory over Amelia Norbury in match 6.

Draycott III are two points behind the leading duo having been held to a draw by Halton III and then beaten 4-2 by Wensum in the weekend's final round of matches.

Ellenborough Ladies lead the way in the eight-team Division Four, having won all five of their matches for the loss of only three individual ties.

However, they have yet to meet second-placed Cippenham B, who are only a point behind. Their dropped point was in the first round, against Drumchapel Glasgow III, where they needed Rachael Iles' 3-0 (11-3, 11-5, 11-6) victory over Amelia Smorlarek in the final match to secure their point.

There is a three-point gap from the top two to St Neots and Leeds, who are both on 6pts.

Team of the Weekend was Cippenham B, while Holly McGerty of Halton IV was Player of the Weekend.

In the averages, Marketa Myskova had a perfect 10 for Joola Plymouth II in Division One, with Scarlett Anders (Halton II) also having a 100% record from eight matches. Megan Jones (Draycott II) won nine out of 10.

In Division Two, Weronika Bozek of Fusion II won eight from eight, while in Division Three it was Saskia Key who topped the pile with a full house of 10 out of 10 – Paula Callaghan of Drumchapel Glasgow II also had a 100% record, from eight matches, while Lauren Loosemore of Halton III had 9/10. It was also 9/10 for Rebecca Savage of Leeds in Division Four.

Player of the Weekend Holly McGerty (photo by Melvyn Lovegrove)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/dennison-and-engelson-put-fusion-top-of-wbl/>