

England's Kacper earns place in elite Euro squad

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: October 18, 2021

Kacper Piwowar has been selected to join the elite European Table Tennis Union (ETTU) under-13 squad for 2022.

The 11-year-old from Devon was among nine boys and seven girls from around the continent to be chosen after a selection camp in Otocec, Slovenia.

It follows his selection last month to attend the ITTF World Hopes Week & Challenge in Jordan later this year.

Piwowar's fellow England squad member Sienna Jetha also attended the camp in Otocec but was not selected for the final squad.

Aspire Lead Coach Ryan Jenkins said: "It's been a pleasure attending the various ETTU events with Sienna and Kacper this season, along with the ITTF Hopes Around the Clock online sessions. This will be something England will be greatly involved in going forward."

The selected players were:

Boys – Mihai Nagy (ROU), Jakub Kabelka (CZE), Kacper Piwowar (ENG), Ocal Gorkem (TUR), Carlos Goncalves (POR), Tadeas Vrsofsky (CZE), Pavol Kokavec (SVK), Julian Meier (AUT), Adrian Kastl (AUT).

Girls – Irina Gimeno (ESP), Andreea Baiasu (ROU), Nina Kerbinz (AUT), Diana Koliennokova (UKR), Hanka Kodetova (CZE), Alexandra Dicu (ROU), Julia Leal (POR).

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/englands-kacper-picked-for-elite-euro-squad/>