

Preston Grand Prix: Mabey goes for a double

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: October 25, 2021

Crawley GP Men's Singles winner Sam Mabey will head to Preston for the second stop of the 2021/22 circuit looking to repeat the feat.

Mabey is second seed for the event at the University of Central Lancashire's Tom Finney Sports Centre this weekend, behind Grigory Vlasov, who withdrew from last month's Crawley tournament.

On the women's side, Crawley champion Denise Payet is not in the field, which is headed by top seed Mollie Patterson.

As ever, the Banded events will be held on the Saturday (October 30), with the open events on the Sunday – click here to see the full draw for all events.

Downloaded From:

https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/preston-grand-prix-mabey-goes-for-a-double
/