

Fancy a trip across the border for competition?

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: November 17, 2021

A number of English players have already entered the Gerald Watkins Blaenau Gwent Open – and there are still a few places available.

The competition on Sunday November 28th takes place not far across the border, at Abertillery Sports Centre, and features events for Under-13, Cadet and Junior boys and girls.

Click here for more information and to download an entry form – the closing date is next Saturday, November 20th.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/fancy-a-trip-across-the-border-for-competition/>