

Walker defeated in semi-finals in Dusseldorf

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: January 16, 2022

Top seed Robert Gardos ended Sam Walker's run in the semi-finals of the WTT Feeder event in Dusseldorf.

The Austrian, world ranked 26, prevailed in five – winning three close games after eighth seed Walker had levelled the match at 1-1 – and went on to win the competition by defeating Brian Afanador of Puerto Rico in the final.

Result

Men's Singles

Semi-finals

Robert Gardos (AUT) bt Walker 4-1 (11-9, 4-11, 11-9, 11-7, 11-9)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/walker-defeated-in-semi-finals-in-dusseldorf/>