Tickets go on general sale today for the Mark Bates Ltd Senior National Championships – don't miss your chance to book a seat at our flagship tournament.

The event is set to be even more special this year – not only is it the first Nationals for two years because of the pandemic, but it is your opportunity to see our top able-bodied and para players up close as they continue their preparations for a home Commonwealth Games in Birmingham in the summer!

This eagerly anticipated occasion will once again be hosted by the David Ross Sports Village in Nottingham, from Friday March 25 to Sunday March 27.

Tickets are on sale on the Ticket Factory website. To buy, click the button below.

As well as individual tickets, family tickets and a three-day package are available. There are concessions for under-18s, students, senior citizens (60+) and people with disabilities, while under-fives and carers go free.

You can choose to add an event programme for £2 when you purchase your tickets.

Our members can enjoy a 10% discount on all tickets, simply by entering the code STANDARDMEMBERS22 in the promo code box when ordering.

The full range of tickets and prices can be seen below. Please note, the Early Bird discount period has now closed.

Friday and Saturday will see multiple tables in operation for the early stages of singles and doubles competitions, including the under-21 event, with seats offering a full view across the arenas.

On Sunday, the field of play will be re-configured into a single arena for Finals Day, when the destination of the trophies will be decided.

It promises to once again be the highlight of the year for English table tennis, so don't delay, make sure you book your place among the spectators today!
