Congratulations to everyone that participated in the Jack Petchey London Schools' Ind. Finals at Redbridge Leisure Centre on 2nd July 2011. You all performed brilliantly and demonstrated why you are the finest young table tennis players in London!

An incredible day's table tennis, which witnessed the arrival of the London 2012 Olympic Games Mascot – Wenlock, was brought to a splendid conclusion with a fantastic performance from vocalist Vicky Lyons, the trophy presentation and a raffle which saw lucky winners take home a signed England table tennis bat, a signed England shirt and an iPod Touch!

Jack Petchey CBE was also there to offer his congratulations to all the players,

"It's been a great pleasure to witness the result of the London Schools' Table Tennis Tournament today. Well done to all those who've taken part. I've been a fan of table tennis for a long time, it is a fantastic sport for young people to play and I hope that the partnership between The Jack Petchey Foundation and The English Table Tennis Association will go from strength to strength".
