The finals for the ELCC were held at Westfield Table Tennis Club, Wellingborough over the weekend of 2nd and 3rd July 2011. The weekend was a very enjoyable occasion with some superb table tennis and some very competitive matches. Our thanks go to everyone at the Westfield Table Tennis Club who made us so welcome, an excellent venue with excellent facilities and lovely food.

Saturday was the day for the Senior Competitions; the Wilmott Cup and J M Rose Bowl. Eight teams reached the finals and battle commenced at 10am. Sunday was juniors' day with the Carter Cup (Junior Boys) and Bromfield Trophy (Junior Girls) being played for.

Wilmott Cup (Men)

There were two groups of four teams with all playing all in the groups and then crossover matches to give every team a placing.

Group A. Wembley & Harrow got off to a fine start defending their title by beating Hastings 4-1. The title holders Eli Baraty won both his singles and James Sprackling one, Nathan Darby for Hastings played well to beat James in the fifth for Hastings only win. The other match in the group was a much closer affair with Cambridge taking the honours 3-2 against Reading, the decider being in the fifth match. Tony West took both his singles for Cambridge, Mick Harper defeated Ramesh Gehlot with Hari Gehlot getting the better of Mick in the reverse singles. The second set of matches saw a fairly comfortable 4-1 win for Cambridge over Hastings with Tony West again getting a maximum, Kevin Gray, Cambridge's second player defeating Matt Porter of Hastings and again Nathan Darby got the sole win for Hastings. Wembley & Harrow had a much closer game against Reading, Darek Zurowski and Ryan Maynard played the singles, Darek winning both with a close tussle in the first match which he won 12-10 in the fifth. Hari Gehlot won the only singles for Reading but teamed up well with Stuart Williams to win the doubles. Score 3-2 to Wembley & Harrow. The final set of matches in the group saw Reading defeat Hastings 3-2 with Hari Gehlot getting both singles and Stuart Williams one for Reading, Nathan Darby getting one singles and partnering Matt Porter for the doubles win for Hastings. Another close encounter in the second set of matches in this group saw Wembley & Harrow just squeeze past Cambridge to take the match 3-2 with match winner Eli Baraty taking Tony West of Cambridge in the fifth, his second singles win in the match. Ryan Maynard got the other for Wembley & Harrow whilst Tony West took the sole singles for Cambridge and the pairing of Martin Gray and Mick Harper the doubles.

In Group B last years runners-up, Stockton, started well with a 5-0 win over Kettering. Danny Welch and Tony Wilson playing well in the singles for Stockton. In the other first round match the youngsters, Matt Outhwaite and Laurence Sweeney had some good matches against the more experienced Potteries team of Brian Johns and Michael Cerven with a final 3-2 outcome for Leamington Spa. Matt won both his singles whilst Brian took one for the Potteries, who also won the doubles. Stockton had a close second set of matches against the Potteries clinching the win in the fifth with Andy Wilson winning his second singles against Michael Cerven, Tony Wilson had earlier beaten Michael Cerven but lost to Brian Johns. The Potteries also took the doubles. Leamington Spa versus Kettering saw Leamington Spa win all the singles with the Kettering duo of Jack Coleman and Chris Ross having a comfortable win in the doubles. The final set of matches and Stockton defeated Leamington Spa 4-1, only losing the doubles, Leamington Spa fielded Mark Jackson in place of Laurence Sweeney for this round. The Potteries in their final group match defeated Kettering 3-2 with Chris Ross of Kettering getting one singles and with Jack Coleman won the doubles.

The field of play was set for a repeat of last year's final between Wembley & Harrow and Stockton. Stockton started well with Andy Wilson having a comfortable win over Eli Baraty, Danny Welch then stepped up to beat Darek Zurowski 12-10 in the fifth. 2-0 to Stockton. A change of players for the doubles with Andy and Tony Wilson versus Eli and Ryan Maynard which the latter partnership won fairly easily. Next up was Andy Wilson against Darek, a crucial match which Darek took in four. Scoreline 2-2. The fifth and final match between Danny Welch and Eli Baraty went right to the wire with Eli winning 11-7 in the fifth. A jubilant Wembley & Harrow retained the title and a disappointed Stockton again finished in second place. This match was one of the finest the competition has seen over recent years and one enjoyed by all the spectators who had the pleasure to watch it. Placings for third and fourth position saw Cambridge's team of Kevin Gray, Mick Harper, Tony West and Martin Gray defeat Leamington Spa's Mark Jackson and Matt Outhwaite 3-1. Leamington taking the doubles whilst Kevin Gray took two singles and Mick Harper one with Tony West and Martin Gray being on the losing end of the doubles. A very creditable third place for Cambridge. Potteries v Reading for fifth and sixth place and Potteries got off to a good start with Brian Johns defeating Ramesh Gehlot, next on Stuart Williams had a good game to beat Michael Cerven. The Potteries took the next two matches to win 3-1 and take fifth place. The first group rounds started at 10am with matches in Group B between Leamington Spa and West Wilts and Hull versus Crawley/Horsham. The Leamington Spa team, both of whom had played the previous day in the Wilmott Cup, of Laurence Sweeney and Matt Outhwaite ran out 5-0 winners over West Wilts who saw Lee Phillips and Alex MacLachlan playing in the singles matches and Alex teaming up with Ashley Allsop in the doubles. The first three matches were fairly comfortable but Lee put up a tremendous fight to take Matt to five and similarly Alex played well to take an end off Laurence. Crawley/Horsham started well with Alex Forshaw defeating Reece Lo of Hull. However, it was one way after that with Michael Fraser taking both his singles. The final result was 4-1 to Hull with the less experienced Erik Van-Mal being Crawley/Horsham's second player. The second set of matches saw Hull have a comfortable 5-0 win over West Wilts with Lee Phillips and Ashley Allsop playing the singles. Some more close matches which saw Crawley/Horsham take the match 3-2.

In Group A the late withdrawal of North Herts meant the placings for the group were fought between Plymouth, Birmingham and Reading. First off was Plymouth versus Birmingham which was a closely fought match. Birmingham emerged the victors when Jack Williamson beat Sam Rose in the fifth by 3-2. Dominic Sussex started well for Plymouth defeating Jack and Sam put Plymouth 2-0 up when he took the second match against Lee Holtham. Birmingham took the doubles when Jack partnered Amit Ubhi and they won the last two matches. Next on was Plymouth versus Reading with Plymouth making an excellent start with Dominic Sussex defeating Liam McTiernan but that was to be the only game they won. Daniel Moses won both his singles for Reading who also took the doubles. 4-1 to Reading the final result. The final group match between Reading and Birmingham saw Reading win comfortably 5-0.

The play-off matches for final placings saw Reading and Hull competing for first and second places with Reading winning 3-0 to take the title.
