The 54th European Youth Championships in Kazan, Russia opened today. The England Team had a mixed day but the defeats were all against strong opposition.

Morning matches

Cadet Girls.

England cadet girls had a tough start to the team competition when they faced Russia in their first group match which England lost 3 – 0. Emma Torkington produced some good table tennis to stretch European number 2 cadet Ekaterina Guseva to four sets.

The next match against Serbia was a 3 – 2 defeat and Tin Tin Ho showed good fighting qualities in winning both of her matches 3 – 1.

Cadet Boys.

The cadet boys played one group match and opened their account with a 3 – 0 win over Moldova with Igor Morais and Helshan Weerasinghe winning one singles each and combining to win the doubles.

Junior Girls.

The junior girls team of Karina Le Fevre, Tressa Armitage and Chloe White started in good form with a 3 – 0 win over Armenia with Tressa winning 3 – 2 after trailing 2 sets to 0.

In the second match against a strong Croatian team Karina, Tressa and Yolanda King lost 3 – 0.

The junior boy's team of Liam Pitchford, Gavin Evans and Sean Cullen beat Denmark 3 – 0. Gavin Evans proved to be in good form in his first international match in 16 months winning his match 3 – 0 and Sean Cullen winning after losing the first 2 sets.

The first round groups finish tomorrow, The Cadet Boys will face Estonia, the Cadet Girls have their final Match against Croatia. The Junior Boys have two matches tomorrow, a huge match against seeded Sweden tomorrow morning and later they face Lithuania while the Junior Girls will finish off against Lithuania.
