World Number One Wang Hao will have high expectations for 2012

Tickets are now on sale for the ITTF Pro Tour Grand Finals (Nov 24–27th 2011) at ExCeL in London.

This is the final chance to see the world's best players in England before the Olympics arrive next summer. The Pro Tour Finals are being used as a test event for the 2012 Games and will provide both players and fans with a pre-Olympic taster for what's to come next year.

Along with a share of the $365,000 prize fund allocated to the event, the victors will benefit from a big psychological advantage ahead of the main event, which is also staged at ExCeL.

The Tour event includes Men's and Women's Under-21s singles, Men's and Women's Doubles and Men's and Women's singles competitions. Certain events will also be televised via a live transmission.

If the ITTF Pro Tour competitions are not enough then there will also be the chance to see Great Britain take on the rest of the world in two Team GB vs World All Stars matches that will take place on Friday 25th.

Prices begin at £10 for concessionary tickets to the Men's and Women's last 16 matches, and rise to just £25 for the finals days on the Saturday and Sunday. Tickets are also available for all four days, weekday tickets or weekend tickets while discounts are available to affiliated members.

Tickets will be available from Thursday 11th August via ticketmaster.co.uk.
