

Women's British League Info 2011/12

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: August 15, 2011

The first weekend of the Women's British League takes place at the end of September 2011 in Bristol as DHS Greenhouse Progress look to retain the Premier Division title after last year's 100% record of ten wins from ten matches.

First weekend:

24th/25th September 2011 at the UWE Bristol, BS16 1QY

Second weekend:

4th/5th February 2012 at The Dome, Doncaster, DN4 7PD

—

36 teams have entered this year's competition with a further two sides on the waiting list. Both the above events have available hotel accommodation nearby for both players and fans to come and watch the play.

Gill Smith is the referee for both weekends while John Hardcastle is the organiser and Bribar Table Tennis are the sponsors.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/womens-british-league-info-201112/>