

Veteran Men

Author: Russell Moore

Posted On: March 05, 2010

Lawrence Trumpauskas under pressure in his Quarter Final match

Rd 1 winners

Trumpauskas BYE

Trott 3-0

Papantoniou 3-1

Williams BYE

Dennison BYE

Bartram 3-1

Wignall 3-1

Taylor 3-1

Quarter-finals

There were a brace of 3-2 victories in the quarters showing just how close things are at the higher end of the mens' veterans game.

Trott 3-2

Williams 3-2

Bartram 3-1

Taylor 3-1

Semi-finals

The semi-finalists didn't have a clean sweep either, with Trott, who always provides an entertaining story and Taylor taking one game a piece from their opponents before bowing out.

Williams 3-1

Bartram 3-1

Final

For the second time in two years Keith Williams has reached the final, but last years runner up Eddie Smith didn't step foot onto the Gerfloor, taking his place in the final fight was Chris Bartram, but he could not depose the 09 champion who kept his title after a great 3-0 win.

Keith Williams bt. Chris Bartram 11-3, 11-6, 11-6

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/veteran-men/>