

Player Profile: Daniel Reed

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: October 20, 2011

Daniel (danny) Reed has made numerous Senior England appearances but none better than at the Commonwealth Games in Delhi, 2010 where he helped the team to a silver medal. He is currently ranked as England's number four.

Name:

Daniel Reed

Date of birth:

05/12/89

Club:

Odense, Denmark

Who are you?

I am a 21 year old international table tennis player, having played for England since I was 14 as a junior and 17 as a senior. I have been Commonwealth Games Silver medalist in 2010, national champion in doubles in 2011 and European Youth Gold medalist in 2007.

Proudest moment:

Winning Commonwealth Games Silver medal, Delhi 2010

When/how did you get involved with table tennis:

When I was 10 in my local Primary school, Hutton Rudby.

What does the Olympics mean to you?

It has been my dream to compete in the Olympics since I was young, and to compete in London 2012 would be an unbelievable feeling with a home crowd and extra strong team spirit.

Social media:

(none)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/player-profile-daniel-reed-2/>