

Player Profile: Na Liu

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: October 24, 2011

Na Liu is Ireland's quiet enforcer and number one Women's player. She regularly competes at ITTF Pro Tour events and can pull off a few big shocks against higher ranked opponents. Her world ranking is 213 but she would cause the English girls a few problems if they came head-to-head.

Name:

Na Liu

Date of birth:

07 Feb 1983

Club:

Marmande France

Who are you?

A table tennis player

Proudest moment:

Wining Irish National Championships

When/how did you get involved with table tennis:

I started when I was 7 years old with my Mother

What does the Olympics mean to you?

It has always been my dream to play in the Olympic Games and this has given me the drive and ambition to put 110% into achieving this goal. Competing at the Olympics will be the pinnacle of my career."

Social media:

(none)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/player-profile-na-liu/>