Sky TV will be broadcasting from the ExCeL in London footage of the play at the ITTF Pro Tour Grand Finals.

While you can watch live internet streamed footage of the event on itTV from Thursday–Sunday, the Sky TV coverage will be profiled again in early December on their satellite broadcasts.

There are three one-hour programmes being produced by Sky to be shown on the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th of December which will mean that if you miss any of the action this weekend, you can catch it up just a week later.

As a reminder: tickets are still on sale for all days at the ExCeL and they can now be brought and picked up on the day from the venue itself. With Sunday being the busiest day it is advisable to ring our box office first on 0795 846 2787 to assure your place.
