The UK's leading Chinese table tennis retailer, TTLinks, has launched a unique, new table tennis news service, called 'My TTLinks', powered by Discover MINE.

My TTLinks is a brand new destination for table tennis fans which pulls in the latest table tennis news and blog headlines from the world's leading sites such as ITTF, ETTA, Pongathon and Table Tennis Talk.

The service is entirely free, very easy to use and completely customisable to suit a user's interests, including news, sport, entertainment, business and lifestyle. TTLinks also has the opportunity to keep its customers aware of the latest offers and promotions of both itself and its advertising partners, through the news pages.

This unique, new news service can be found at <http://my.ttlinks.com>
