

SBL Premier Division preview

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: January 16, 2012

Ahead of the third weekend of the Senior British League (Sunday 22nd Jan) the players wait in anticipation of what could prove to be a pivotal couple of games in the Championship title-race.

The morning's play sees the top two, Drumchapel Glasgow (games record 50-14) and B-BATT Pavilion I (43-21) meet in a monumental tie. The potential players on show is palpable; Ryan Jenkins, Stephen Jenkins, Chris Doran and Gareth Herbert for Drumchapel while Loic Bobillier-Monnot, Filip Szymanski, Giovanni Le Borgne, Eli Baraty and Da Shuai Zhang could line-up for B-BATT.

Meanwhile at the bottom is could be a tough weekend for London Progress who again face a relegation battle but might not be expecting too much from the weekend's fixtures against Fusion and Drumchapel Glasgow.

To read the full report on TT365 click here

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/sbl-premier-division-preview/>